

Health & Safety Policy Statement

The Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 imposes a statutory duty on employers to ensure in so far as reasonably practicable, the health and safety of their employees whilst at work. This duty also extends to others who may be affected by that work.

Employees also have a statutory duty to take care of themselves and their work colleagues who may be affected by their acts or omissions. To enable these duties to be carried out, it is our intent to ensure that responsibilities for health and safety matters are effectively assigned, accepted and fulfilled at all levels within our organisational structure.

1. We will, so far as is reasonably practicable, ensure that:

- Adequate resources are provided to ensure that proper provision can be made for health and safety.
- Risk assessments are carried out and periodically reviewed.
- Safe Systems of work are provided and maintained without risks to health.
- Arrangements for use, handling, storage and transport of articles and substances for use at work are safe and without risks to health.
- All employees are provided with such information, instruction, training and supervision as is necessary to secure their health at work and safety of others who may be affected by their actions.
- Where appropriate, health surveillance will be provided to employees.
- The provision and maintenance of all plant, machinery and equipment is safe and without risk to health.
- The working environment of all employees is safe and without risks to health and that adequate provision is made with regard to the facilities and arrangements for their welfare at work.
- The place of work is safe and that there is safe access to and egress from the workplace.
- Monitoring activities are undertaken to maintain agreed standards.

2. It is the duty of all employees at work:

- To take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves and of other persons who may be affected by their acts or omissions at work and co-operate with us in fulfilling statutory duties.
- Not to interfere with, or misuse, anything provided in the interests of health and safety.

3. General:

- This Health and Safety Policy will be reviewed at least annually, amended and updated as and when necessary. Communication of any such changes will be made to all employees.
- There are established and maintained effective procedures for consultation and communication between all levels of management and employees on all matters relating to health, safety and welfare.

As Managing Director I, along with all Company Directors accept responsibility for this Health and Safety Policy and for supporting and promoting our commitment to ensuring the effective implementation in respective areas of the Business. Our RIDDOR record is approaching 2 years since our last reportable incident, and this is down to the safe work processes put into practice and commitment by all employees to our Health & Safety standards.

Max Sheridan
Managing Director

2nd January 2024